President's Corner

Ernie Glover, President

We had a busy club meeting! First we had Peach Tree Camera Repair for camera clean and calibration. As usual, the monthly club meeting had the normal schedule and the Journalism competition. While Kathy was doing the vote counting on the competition, we did a presentation on creative photography. After the competition results, we had three photo station where Lorrie showed us how to take pictures with oil and water. The other two stations had one with ink and water and the other smoke photography.

Everyone looked like they were having fun, while exploring their creative side in photography.

In May we had eight people who attended the beginner's class in photography. We are planning on doing it again in 5 months for anyone interested and even if there are people who would like to do it again.

Next month competition topic is creative photography. Remember to submit your monthly topic images for the club competition and also for the Facebook competition. You can submit up to 5 images for the monthly competition and one image for the Facebook competition.
The remainder topics for both monthly and Facebook topics for the year is:

	Club night	Workshop	Topic
May	Creative	Smoke & water	Waterfall
June	Journalism	Travel	Something Old
July	Travel	People	The Golden Hour
August	People	Post processing	Beach Landscape
September	Rubber Ducky	Coosa Valley Fair prep.	Sunrise
October	B&W	Patterns in Nature	Natural light
November	Patterns in Nature	Open for 2020	Black and white
December	Year end function	Year end function	Colors
Up to 5 images			Up to 1 image

See you all next month, and I am excited to see everyone's creative images (since creative is my favorite topic).
